Mr. James S. Lay
Executive Secretary
National Security Council
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Lay:

As a means of acquainting the intelligence community with the organization and functions of the intelligence components of the Central Intelligence Agency, a briefing has been arranged as a matter of mutual benefit.

It is believed that because of your interest in intelligence you would find this briefing interesting and useful. We trust that you will be able to attend.

Because of the number of people being invited from the intelligence agencies two sessions will be held, one on 14 March and one on 21 March at 1400, lasting about three hours. It would be appreciated if you would inform my office of the date which suits your convenience.

Sincerely,

Loftus

Loftus W. Becker
Deputy Director/Intelligence
